

What you need to know about the transparency in coverage rule

.From health coverage IDs and provider price comparison, to provider data verification to public provider database access “No Surprises” Act January 2022 through 2024 mandates requires consequential changes for health plans & providers.

Online provider price comparison of expected out-of-pocket costs for medical services across multiple providers

Machine-readable files with in-network negotiated rates, out of network charges & payments, & prescription drug rates.

Individual Disclosure including estimation for shoppable services and patient estimation.

Transparency of in-network & out-of-network deductibles & out-of-pocket limitations on health coverage ID cards

Enable an accessible provider directory with a verification process & response protocol within a publicly accessible provider database.

